MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

SUBJECT: Highlights of Senior Planning Conference

1. The 11-12 December Senior Planning Conference identified and discussed a broad range of issues for the Intelligence Community to deal with in the near, mid- and long-terms. Some lend themselves to immediate attack; others will require long-range and in-depth study and planning. The brief papers attached cover some of the issues which were highlighted as important and time-sensitive, and which lend themselves to immediate action. I shall be interested in receiving your progress reports on actions which you may be taking in connection with these.

2. A comprehensive report is being prepared which will cover the conference discussion and other issues raised, with recommended courses of action.

3. It is evident that many challenges face us in the years ahead, and we must continue to work together to ensure the continuing health of the Intelligence Community and of our assets, and to evaluate our performance as we proceed.
